

“Democracy is the only way” – past illusion or future potential for our society?

27th June - 3rd July 2022

Academia Aestiva Internationalis is an international Summer School with a tradition of educating young professionals and students in the field of international relations.

Our mission for the past 7 years has been perfecting the knowledge of participants on a certain topic, by introducing and deconstructing all its main and side information.

Where?

Faculty of Social Sciences,
Ljubljana, Slovenia

When?

June 27th - July 3rd, 2022

Who?

Bachelor and Master students

How?

Apply with CV and motivational letter

Content for Summer School 2022

Obtain 4 ECTS*

Address global issues

Participate in a dialogue with experts on the field

Key Elements and Challenges of Contemporary Democracy • The Democratic System in Modern Societies • Corruption as an Indicator of Democracy • The Rule of Law • Gender Equality • Freedom of Speech and Dissemination of False News • The Crisis of Multilateralism • United Nations and World Trade Organization • Institutionalizing Environmentalism • Climate Change as a Threat to Democracy

Webpage: <https://www.academiaaestivainternationalis.com/>

E-mail: aainternationalis@gmail.com

* Throughout the summer school and before, the participants will work on a specific problem with a mentor, that will later be turned into an essay. Active participation and 90 % attendance at lectures are required to be able to obtain 4 ECTS. Participants are not obliged to gain ECTS, they can simply participate in the Summer School and receive a certificate of participation.